Dear Colleague,

Aram Chobanian, the President of Boston University, John R. Silber, the President emeritus, and I have the pleasure of inviting you to participate as an honored guest at a festschrift for Larry Sulak highlighting his physics contributions, his students, and his collaborators. The event will take place at Boston University on Friday and Saturday, October 21 and 22.

I am sending this invitation in the hope of having the pleasure of a quick reply, preferably by 5 September.

I am very much looking forward to seeing you at the festschrift.

Sincerely,

Sheldon Lee Glashow
